

Lisa is a native Oregonian and enjoys living in beautiful Central Oregon where there is plenty of outdoor recreation. Raised with a strong work ethic, Lisa's goal is to provide excellent customer service in finding the perfect property for you, or selling your property so that you can make the change you desire. She's dedicated in making your real estate transaction as smooth as possible and helping you in every step of the process. Think of her as your Central Oregon real estate resource! She works with buyers and sellers in all types of transactions including relocation, second and luxury homes.

Being a member of the National Association of Realtors, she also has earned the Accredited Buyer's Representative (ABR) and the Senior Real Estate Specialist (SRES) designation. She earned a bachelor's degree in business administration/accounting and worked as an accountant for a corporation and as an office manager/bookkeeper for a construction company. Lisa enjoys hiking, biking, kayaking and snow shoeing.
